

ACAP Tasmanian State Seminar 20 October 2005

Call For Papers

Keynote Speaker for this years State Seminar is Mr. Mark Cooke, National Clinical Effectiveness Manager with the Ambulance Services Association in the UK. Mr. Cooke will be speaking on a range of issues affecting the provision of ambulance services.

The Organising Committee is now calling for submissions from anyone interested in presenting brief free papers at the 2005 State Seminar. The topic of papers for this years seminar is being kept flexible, but should be on a topic relevant to the delivery of pre-hospital health services. Interested people should submit an abstract of their paper initially with full papers being required closer to the seminar dates.

Presentations should not exceed 20 minutes in length, including question time.

Submissions should not exceed 500 words and must be in MS Word format, and should use the following cover page format.

Name:
Address:
Telephone:	H:	W:	M:
Paper Title:
Disclaimer: I certify that this paper is my work, or the work of a group of peers whom I am authorised to represent. I have not used the work of any other person except where explicitly referenced. I accept that submission of this paper does not create any obligation on the seminar organising committee, in any way.
Signed _____

The committee will consider all submissions received before 16 September 2005. All submissions or inquiries should be submitted to dale.edwards@dhhs.tas.gov.au